

ROYAL TRAVELERS PRESENTS:

“Jack Hanna’s into the Wild Live!”

THE HANOVER THEATRE FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

2 Southbridge Street
Worcester, MA 01608

Emmy Award winning TV host and lifelong animal advocate, Jack Hanna brings the jungle to Worcester this spring. Sit back and enjoy this awe-inspiring program as you learn about amazing animal species and the wild adventures of Jack Hanna! In 1983, he was invited to appear on Good Morning America in New York following the birth of baby twin gorillas at the Columbus Zoo. He eagerly accepted the invitation knowing that this was a great opportunity to educate people across the nation about animals. He has been a regular guest and wildlife correspondent ever since. Two years later, in 1985, he appeared on The Late Show with David Letterman for the first time. Dave and he “hit it off” and now he is a guest on The Late Show several times each year. A few years later, he started appearing regularly on Larry King Live. Other shows that he has appeared on with his animal friends include The Ellen DeGeneres Show, Hollywood Squares, The Maury Show, Entertainment Tonight, FOX News and CNN programs, and various other news programs (as a wildlife correspondent).
